

Walter Calhoun has been a resident of Ventura County since 1964. He attended Ventura College and California Lutheran College. He has been employed in the construction business since 1966.

Walter learned to fly at Oxnard Airport in 1974. Over the next four-year period, he acquired the following ratings and certificates:

Airline Transport Certificate – single-/multi-engine land

Commercial Certificate Seaplane

Certified Flight Instructor – single-/multi engine and instrument airplane