4.0 Spotlight on Youth: WIA Youth Programs

Mariana Cazares presented an overview of the WIA-funded Youth Empowerment Program (YEP) that is provided by the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Oxnard and Port Hueneme (BGCOP). YEP offers three types of support for low-income youth facing significant barriers to school and work success:

- Job Ready Program: ages 15-18 who are in school; up to 90 hours of instruction, opportunity for school credits, and basic skills tutoring
- Job Ready Accelerated Program: ages 16-21 who are not in school; 20 hours of skills training and career options
- Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship; ages 16-21; education to improve academic, business, technology, and life skills to become economically productive

Ms. Cazares indicated that employers are encouraged to get involved with YEP by participating in a career day, being a guest speaker, and hosting company field trips. In addition, employers who hire from the YEP program receive a no-fee service to cover wages for the first 125 hours of employment and the potential for a tax credit on first year wages.

Stephanie Corbett introduced two youth participants who shared their success stories and expressed appreciation for the guidance and support of the YEP staff and program. Youth Council members congratulated the youth on their achievements and thanked the BGCOP staff for their commitment and hard work.

5.0 Ventura County Regional Strategic Workforce Development Plan (Regional Plan): Discussion of Youth Goals and Action Plan

- Inventory of Industry Sector Career Pathways: Tiffany Morse reviewed the most recent update of the K-14 inventory, indicating that information gathering would continue. Dr. Morse noted several occupational clusters for which career readiness curriculum might need to change or be developed. She also invited feedback from Council members, other WIBVC committees, employers, and educators.
- Youth Council Action Plan: Referring to an outline of the youth goals in the Regional Plan, Council members brainstormed an initial course of action:
