

Mike Hodson has lived in Camarillo for more than 26 years. Married to the love of his life Pamuela, they have two children, son Chris living in Oxnard and daughter Julie stationed in Alaska with the United States Air Force. Currently partners in a Beech Baron, Mike enjoys flying friends and family to fun destinations, as well as introducing neophytes to the pleasures and joy of general aviation. Now retired after owning an aircraft parts business for many years, hobbies, honey-do's and travel combine to make life very enjoyable.
