

To CalCannabis Cultivation Licensing Stakeholders:

CalCannabis is pleased to inform you that they now have an hour-long video that reviews in great detail a Local Agency Implementation Workshop. This presentation features a wealth of information on the cannabis cultivation application and licensing process, California Cannabis Track-and-Trace System, cultivation-site requirements, an overview of the role of local jurisdictions, and much more.

The presentation is posted on the CalCannabis Cultivation Licensing website under the Resources column.

If you have questions, call CalCannabis at 1-833-CALGROW (1-833-225-4769) or send an email to calcannabis@cdfa.ca.gov. CalCannabis Cultivation Licensing is a division of the California Department of Food and Agriculture.
