

Protecting Farms, Facilities, and Wildlife

A Symposium on Alternatives to Anticoagulant Rodenticides

Percentage of area wildlife that have ingested Anticoagulant Rodenticides:

95% of Bobcats
83% of Coyotes
91% of Mountain Lions

Copyright Louise Rishoff

ALTERNATIVES TO ANTICOAGULANT RODENTICIDES

Broome Library, Cal State University Channel Islands
Wednesday, July 20, 9:30-12:30

A free, half-day symposium on alternatives to anticoagulant rodenticides, the science behind effective alternatives for rodent control and successful examples at farms and facilities.

Featuring experts and best practices from:

- ◆ UC Cooperative Extension
- ◆ Cal Poly San Luis Obispo
- ◆ Urban Ag Ecology
- ◆ National Park Service
- ◆ County of Ventura
- ◆ Oak Park Unified School District
- ◆ Pepperdine University
- ◆ Topa Mountain Ranch

Presented by Senator Fran Pavley and Supervisor Linda Parks

RSVP: symposium@ventura.org or (805) 214-2510