

Ventura County Area Agency on Aging presents
LIVING WITHIN YOUR MEANS

Are you ready to begin planning for 2022?

Living Within Your Means is a financial workshop presented by the VCAAA in partnership with the Ventura County Credit Union. This workshop offers tips and tools for budgeting and saving money, and is designed specifically with people 60 and older who are living on a fixed income.

Workshops are currently being offered in person or via Zoom.

Groups of 10 or more are encouraged to reach out to the VCAAA to schedule a Living Within Your Means Workshop. For more information, or to schedule a workshop, please e-mail jannette.jauregui@ventura.org or call (805) 477-7306.

