COMMUNITY MEMBERS ENCOURAGED TO PROVIDE INPUT ON COUNTY OF VENTURA REDISTRICTING

Three Ways to Provide Input: County-Hosted Virtual Community Meetings, Online at the County's Website or Visiting a Local Library

Ventura, CA – The County of Ventura is offering several ways to encourage and receive input from community members on its supervisorial redistricting process, including hosted virtual meetings, online resources at the County's website and visiting a local library or by appointment at the County Government Center. Each one enables community members to learn about redistricting and give their input on how district boundaries should be drawn to best represent communities in Ventura County.
