Wildland VMP Interns

Agency: Fire Protection District
Title of Internship: Wildland VMP Intern
Department: Human Resources
Location: 2451 Latigo Ave, Oxnard 93030

Description:
This position will work closely with the Wildland Unit, tasked as assigned to assist the VMP Captain with fuels reduction projects, wildland fuel monitoring and community outreach. Most of the position’s duties will focus on preparing for new and existing landscape scale fuels reduction projects. The intern will need to be able to hike on steep uneven ground, possess the knowledge or ability to learn basic geographic information system (GIS) mapping and possess a valid driver’s license. Desirable for intern to possess knowledge or experience in environmental sciences, wildlife biology, forestry and or GIS.

Responsibilities/Sample Assignments:
- Walk and flag project sites
- Assist with biological and archaeological surveys
- Independently collect vegetation samples from sites throughout Ventura County
- Assist with public outreach events

Qualifications/Recommendations Interests:
- Some experience with MS Office, especially Word, PowerPoint
- Organizational skills
- Good writing and communication skills
- Must be comfortable interacting with people at various levels of the organization and the public.

10-20 hours per week - There are no remote working opportunities for this position