

Housing options for Emerging Adults		Housing options	How much will the County pay each month?	Who will receive the money?	Will the people I live with be background checked?	What else should I know?
-------------------------------------	--	-----------------	--	-----------------------------	--	--------------------------

► I like where I'm living now . . .

1	I'm very close to reaching my goals, and I want to continue living with my foster family, relative, family friend, or legal guardian	Supervised Independent Living (SILP) – Extended Foster Care	$799 / month Infant supplemental $411 / month	Emerging Adult	No, but social workers will give you information to help you make informed choices	You must demonstrate that you are ready for SILP. Social workers will help you reach new financial and household agreements with your foster parents.
2	I need more time to reach my goals, and I want to continue living with my foster family, relative, family friend, or legal guardian	Approved Foster, Relative, Friend, Guardian Home – Extended Foster Care	$799 / month (more for special needs if approved)	Foster Parent, Relative, Friend, Guardian	Yes	Social workers will help you reach new financial and household agreements with your foster parents.

Talk with your Social Worker about what is best for you!

Housing options for Emerging Adults		Housing options	How much will the County pay each month?	Who will receive the money?	Will the people I live with be background checked?	What else should I know?
-------------------------------------	--	-----------------	--	-----------------------------	--	--------------------------

► I'm ready to try something new . . .

3	I'm very close to reaching my goals, and I want to move in with a different foster family, relative, family friend, or legal guardian	Supervised Independent Living (SILP) – Extended Foster Care	$799 / month Infant supplemental $411 / month	Emerging Adult	No, but social workers will give you information to help you make informed choices	You must demonstrate that you are ready for SILP. Social workers will help you reach new financial and household agreements with your foster parents.
4	I need more time to reach my goals, and I want to move in with a different foster family, relative, family friend, or legal guardian	Approved Foster, Relative, Friend, Guardian Home – Extended Foster Care	$799 / month (more for special needs if approved)	Foster Parent, Relative, Friend, Guardian	Yes	Social workers will help you reach financial and household agreements with your foster parents.
5	I want to move into a housing arrangement that provides support from counselors	Transitional Housing Placement Plus (THP-Plus) Foster Care	$2,225 – $2,797	THP-Plus FC Provider	Yes	You will work with THP-Plus FC counselors to transition to a more independent housing arrangement when you are ready.
6	I want to move into a college dorm, house, or apartment by myself or with housemates / roommates	Supervised Independent Living (SILP) – Extended Foster Care	$799 / month (more for special needs if approved)	Emerging Adult	No, but social workers will give you information to help you make informed choices	You must demonstrate that you are ready for SILP.
7	I'm ready to be own my own without any financial support or help from extended foster care	Emancipation from Foster Care	$0	—	No	Even if you opt out of Extended Foster Care now, you may choose to come back at any time before you turn 21. Keep in touch! www.vchsa.org/ilp

Talk with your Social Worker about what is best for you!